

A Big Shout Out

Sailfish Realty of Florida would like to give a big shout out to Hank Gonzalez, Spence Spencer, and Tabitha Arguelles for volunteering their time and talents for the month of February.

Hank Gonzalez, broker/owner of Sailfish Realty, was a contestant in Singing With The Stars, a fundraising event for Artists for a Cause hosted by the StarStruck Performing Arts Center. Gonzalez was paired up with Shelley Keelor and performed the song Sue Me from the musical production, Guy & Dolls. "The performance was a hoot!" said Sailfish Realty's marketing administrator, Amber Pitcher.

Realtor Spence Spencer and his wife Kathryn represented Sailfish Realty during the second annual A Night at the Outrigger gala for the Council on Aging. "It was a great event for the Council on Aging at the Kane Center. I was honored to attend with my wife Kathryn and represent Sailfish Realty of Florida," Spencer said.

As for one more good deed ... Sales Associate Tabitha Arguelles volunteered her time during the Howard Alan Art Festival in Historic Downtown Stuart.

Sailfish Realty of Florida consists of a proud and dedicated team of local real estate experts and professionals who love giving back to the community they work, live and play in.
